

Herodotus ♦ Edward Gibbon ♦ Philip Marsden ♦ Strabo

Abba Gregorios ♦ Arthur Rimbaud ♦ Edgar Allan Poe

Coleridge ♦ Dervla Murphy ♦ Wilfred Thesiger

ETHIOPIA

through writers' eyes

Edited by Yves-Marie Stranger

Read Ethiopia like an open book

Read eighty different authors and discover 2 500 years of Ethiopian history through their eyes. The ideal book for armchair travellers, Ethiopian enthusiasts, visitors to the country and all Ethiopians themselves.

For launch & publication date: Uthiopia.com

Available in BookWorld, Mega & all Abyssinian bookshops

Uthiopia

About Yves-Marie Stranger

A French-English translator and writer, Yves-Marie grew up on the family farm in the French Pyrenees. After leading horse treks in the Showan highlands, in Ethiopia, where he lived for 15 years, Yves-Marie Stranger now lives in France (more info on YvesMarieStranger.com).

Books by Yves-Marie Stranger

Yves-Marie Stranger is the author of Ces pas qui trop vite s'effacent, The Abyssinian syllabary of Cornu de Lenclos, and a contributing author to African train, the Djibouti-Ethiopia railway.

His next book, The hornbook of Pêro da Covilhã, is a retelling of the life of the Portuguese ambassador to Prester John in the 16th century – and the discoverer of the route to the Indies.

About Uthiopia

Uthiopia is a new Ethiopian publisher. Book excerpts and articles information about upcoming publications are available on Uthiopia.com

Uthiopia is a brand of Lexical Plc (translating and editing in French, English and Amharic in Ethiopia). Contact: Lexi-cal.com/info@lexi-cal.com.

About Ethiopia through writers' eyes

Anthologising close to eighty authors - from Herodotus to Edgar Allan Poe, by way of Emperor Theodoros - the book covers 2 500 years of Ethiopia's distant past and near present. With cultural and historical introductions, Ethiopia through writers' eyes gives precious insights into Ethiopia's making, and a foreshadowing of the country's future.

Read Ethiopia through writers' eyes and Ethiopia becomes an open book.

The British edition can be purchased with Eland Books in the UK, and worldwide through Eland Books' website or Amazon.com.

"Ethiopia through writers' eyes: literally the best pages of whole libraries on Ethiopia, carefully selected and presented by Yves-Marie Stranger."

Barnaby Rogerson

Contact

For interviews, book signings and speaking events: YMS@YvesMarieStranger.com

Uthiopia